

Tenant Petition - Failure to Pay Relocation Payments

GENERAL INFORMATION & INSTRUCTIONS

The City of Richmond and the Richmond Rent Program require Landlords of Rental Units in the City of Richmond to pay relocation payments to mitigate the challenges faced by Tenants who are ordered to vacate a rental unit through no fault of the Tenant.

“Permanent Relocation Payment” means the per unit payment required to be paid by any Landlord, on a pro rata share to an Eligible Tenant(s), who takes action to terminate a tenancy based on an Owner Move-in, Withdrawal from the Rental Market, or Due to a Government Agency’s Order for the Tenant to Vacate the Rental Unit or due to other Conditions.

“Temporary Relocation Payment” means the payment required to be paid to the Tenant by any Landlord (i) who takes action to terminate a tenancy in order to undertake substantial repairs or (ii) when the Tenant has temporarily vacated a Rental Unit in compliance with a governmental agency’s order to vacate or due to Health or Safety Condition, and for which no notice to terminate tenancy was served. If the necessary repairs have not been completed after 60 days or more when the Tenant vacated the Rental Unit voluntarily, the tenant may be entitled to a rent differential payment and possibly, after 120 days, a “Permanent Relocation Payment” as well.

Rent Program Services Analysts are available to answer questions about the petition process, in person or by telephone at (510) 234-RENT [7368], Monday – Friday, 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

FILING THE PETITION

To obtain a determination that a Relocation Payment is owed, the Tenant must mail or bring the following items to the Richmond Rent Program:

1. A completed petition signed by one or more Tenant or subtenant;
2. A copy of any supporting documentation; and
3. A proof of service stating that the opposing party (the Landlord or Landlord’s Representative) was served a copy of the petition and any supporting documentation either by first-class mail or in person. Failure to serve a copy of the petition on the opposing party(ies) may delay resolution of the petition.

AFTER A PETITION IS FILED

Upon receipt of the petition, Rent Program staff members will review the allegations in the petition to determine if they are complete and if a Relocation Payment(s) applies. A Notice of the Right to Object with instructions will be mailed to the opposing party(ies), which will be due within twenty-one (21) days of the mailing date.

A Settlement Conference and Hearing Notice that will include the time, date and place of hearing, and information about the hearing process, will be mailed to all parties no later than ten days before the scheduled hearing date. All parties will have an opportunity to be heard. A written decision will be mailed to each party within a reasonable time after the close of the record. If it is determined that a Relocation Payment is owed, the Tenant will be authorized to collect an initial or full Relocation Payment depending on the circumstances. Any party to the petition may file a timely appeal to the Richmond Rent Board. See Richmond Rent Board Regulations concerning procedures on Appeal and Judicial Review after a Rent Board decision.

Rent Ordinance Requires Relocation Payments for Displaced Tenants

Any notice to terminate a tenancy based on Substantial Repairs, Government Ordered Displacement, Owner Move-in or Withdrawal from the Rental Market shall be accompanied by the appropriate completed Notice of Entitlement to Temporary or Permanent Relocation Payments. This Notice of Entitlement to Temporary or Permanent Relocation Payments must be served on the Rent Program within one week of service on the Tenants.

Temporary Relocation Payments, in addition to possible Rent Differential Payments, are determined by the Tenant's willingness to temporarily vacate, the continued payment of rent and the number of days after the Landlord's notice that the repairs take. Not every tenant is entitled to Relocation Payments.
